

THE DAILY STAR

SATURDAY, MARCH 4

In order to accommodate Eastern Advertisers in the STAR, Mr. E. Duncan Sullivan, No. 72 Astor House, New York City, has been appointed our general and special agent for the Eastern States. This will be a branch office of the STAR, Mr. Sullivan being authorized to make advertising contracts on our behalf, and receipt all collections therefor in our name.

For the next twenty-four hours probably fair or partially cloudy with rising temperature, followed by cloudy weather and possibly light rain.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

THE MAYOR has received the city diploma from the Vienna Exposition.

REV. MR. IRWIN has resigned his position as pastor of the Trinity Episcopal Church on East Liberty street.

GEN. BROWN, of the Pension Office, and his corps of clerks, have been busy all day, paying quarterly pensions.

MR. W. B. MADDOX, of Maddox, Hobart & Co., will soon leave for California, where he will remain for some time.

T. W. SPRAGUE, who has been in the clothing business in this city for twenty-six years, has retired from the firm.

THE VERDICT in the case of Wm. Fenton, who was found dead at 441 East Front street, was death from heart disease.

THE Gardner-Roth assault and battery case (Mrs. Gardner being the assaultee) has been amicably adjusted and dismissed, the defendant paying the costs.

THE Superior Court will not name the person to receive the appointment to the vacant Trusteeship until after the vote on the question of the $60,000 additional aid.

DR. W. M. LOGAN'S work on the Pathology and Treatment of Consumption will appear during the summer in a second edition. This edition will be considerably enlarged, and for the greater part rewritten.

THE Davenport Club last night rendered the "Romance of a Poor Young Man" in most excellent style. The play was so well received, and a very large audience was delighted with the excellent treat. All the leading parts were committed.

AFTER Mr. Robt. J. Cutler, to whom the success of the Mardi Gras is greatly due, did his work promptly and well, he is put off from time to time by the Executive Committee, and he complains that he can not raise enough money from them to pay his hands.

ANNIE KICKMAN, who works for a tobacco firm on Third street, between Vine and Race, has been accused of assaulting with a china bowl another girl, named Sallie Wambaus, while they were returning from work. Gentle Annie paid $1 and costs.

JOSEPH HOCHHEIMER, son of Adam Hochheimer, a carriage maker of Hamilton, Ohio, has been missing since last Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which time he was seen at a store on Central avenue. He had come to this city to pay some bills, and had considerable money with him.

THE Singer Sewing Machine Company has filed a petition against R. H. St. John, an agent of the company in Clark County, principal, and J. W. Byers and J. L. Sursler, sureties, in the United States Circuit Court, to recover on a bond of $2,000 for failure to pay over $1,898.82 belonging to the company.

MISS KATE MEYERS, a young dressmaker, living at No. 14 North street, was arrested on the charge of embezzlement by Miss Lancia Sanders, who complains that she left twelve yards of percale goods valued at $2.40 to be made into a dress by Miss Meyers, and that she failed to account for it. There was no case of embezzlement about it, and the defendant was dismissed.

M. GOLDSMITH, who keeps a notion store at 45 Elder street, has had in his employ a man named David Stern. He claims that Stern has from time to time stolen from him goods amounting to over $500. He thinks he has a case against him at last and swore out an affidavit charging him with the larceny of fifteen dozen silk ties valued at $60. Sol. Davis, who keeps a cheap store on Wade street Market has also been arrested and charged with receiving stolen goods, the same that Stern is accused of stealing. Their cases have been continued. Officers Chard and Mccleary made the arrests and deserve credit for their shrewd handling of the cases.

About two years ago my wife had a very troublesome cough, of so serious a character that we all became very anxious; indeed it seemed that we had but little hope for, as the lungs were affected. We tried various medicines, but very little if any benefit seemed to be derived from any of them; so that it appeared the disease had become chronic, and nothing but death would bring relief. I was then advised to give Dr. D. Jayne's Expecto-rant a trial, and doing so, to our surprise found great benefit from its use. Persisting with it, she gradually commenced improving, until the principal symptoms disappeared entirely, and she has enjoyed reasonably good health ever since.—John Musgrave, Hubbardsville, Kentucky.

Railroad Election.

The special election for the Six-million Southern Railroad Bill will be held Tuesday, March 14. The form of the ballot will be as follows:

An additional appropriation of six millions of dollars for the construction of the Southern Railroad—Yea.

An additional appropriation for the Southern Railroad—Nay.

Announcements.

Next week, Emma Waller at Wood's, Bryant's Minstrels, the best company in the country, at the Grand Opera-house next week.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold their usual social religious services to-night and tomorrow night.

"Woman a Queen: Her Throne and Scepter" will be the subject of Dr. Payne's discourse at St. Paul M. E. Church to-morrow evening.

Another Wait.

Chas. Hannelman, a printer residing at No. 36 Ochler street, is troubled at heart. Some time ago a babe was left at his door, and the neighbors and newspapers run the rig on Charley pretty extensively, but he grinned and bore it, and had just got accustomed to it, when here comes a disappointment. Last night somebody else came along with another baby, which was no doubt intended for Charley. By some unaccountable mistake, however, it was dropped at the door of his neighbor's house, and this morning Charley was so hopping mad that he could hardly talk. He says that such serious blunders are inexcusable.

From an Agricultural Region.

ALBION, EDWARDS COUNTY, ILL., March 2, 1876.

To the Editor of the Star:

We have had a very open, pleasant winter. Wheat is looking fine, and farmers are beginning to plow for spring crops. This county is situated in the southeastern portion of the State and is high and rolling, small prairies interspersed with timber. Our soil is both black sandy loam and light clay loam, and produces well: wheat from 15 to 40 bushels per acre, corn from 40 to 90 bushels per acre. We have good schools, plenty of churches, and as intelligent and thrifty a set of farmers as can be found anywhere; have two railroads in the county, plenty of good water and timber, and good markets. Well improved farms within five miles of railroad and county seat can be bought for from $20 to $30 per acre.

W. A. BARRETT.

Government Contract.

Twelve million hard brick are needed for partitions, backing, &c., in the new Government building. Mr. Samuel Hannaford, Superintendent of the building, who had advertised for proposals for supplying them, has opened the following bids which have been received:

John M. Blair, Cincinnati, $11 per 1,000.

Joseph Goebbels, Covington, $12 per 1,000.

Joseph Budd, Lockland, $12.50 per 1,000.

John Sellens, Cincinnati, $12.50 per 1,000.

J. J. Russe, Covington, $13 per 1,000.

The contract will amount to $132,000. The brick will be delivered from time to time for the next three years.

Amusements.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Miss Julia Mathews, the charming vocalist and Opera Bouffe performer, with her excellent Company, closes the present engagement with two performances to-day, matinee and night. At the matinee

"Daughter of the Regiment" and "Aladdin," and this evening "H. I. H. the Grand Duke" and the glorious burlesque "Lucifer." Last night the "Grand Duke" was presented to good house.

Miss Mathews' singing and acting were unusually fine, and the audience was as usual delighted. This troupe has made such an excellent impression that the desire for their early return is universal. They have played to good houses this time, but their success on another visit will be even more marked.

Next week Bryant's Minstrels, who, an Eastern papersays, have well earned their claim of being the oldest and most complete minstrel troupe now traveling, and needs no newspaper puffing to introduce them to the public. The company as at present organized is large and composed of the best talent in America.

WOOD'S THEATER.—Miss Kate Raymond, supported by Mr. O. B. Collins, in the "Walls of New York," and "Dick the Newsboy," gives two performances to-day—matinee and night.

Next week the great tragic actress, Emma Waller, appears at this house. She is a star of recognized ability in the profession and is pronounced by critics the best living impersonator of the great character "Meg Merrilies." This will be her opening piece, and she will doubtless draw fine houses. Secure seats early.

At the meeting of the Board of Councilmen yesterday an ordinance to authorize the extension of the Columbia & Cincinnati Street Railroad was ordered printed and made the special order for next meeting.

An appropriation of $1,097.41 was made from the General Fund to pay Michael Burns for grading Warner street.

A resolution to contract with the Times and Enquirer to do the city advertising for one year was unanimously adopted.

Ordinances were passed to locate lamp posts on Fourth avenue, and to contract with Bernard Burns to construct a bridge over Lick Run Road at Main street; requesting the Legislature to oppose the passage of a police bill for Cincinnati giving the appointment of the Police Commissioners to the Governor; to appropriate $700 to put a temporary bridge over the wash caused by Hugh Campbell's tunneling for a sewer under the hills on Eighth street.

An ordinance to lease certain park property and the use of certain streets by the Miami Valley Narrow-gauge Street Railroad Company came up and was made the special order for next meeting.

The report of the special committee appointed to ascertain and report the responsibility of the Gas Company seeking to obtain a franchise of the streets was debated at some length as a minority report of the committee stated that the Company was not responsible. No action was taken before the meeting adjourned.

THE STATESMAN AND THE ACORN.—A Statesman once went out into a Southern forest, and, lying down beneath an umbrageous oak, placed his cap on a branch and fell asleep. It chanced that an acorn fell from a bough near the oak and struck the Statesman in the eye. Instead of discovering the theory of gravitation, he at once fled to the nearest town, telegraphed to Washington for troops, and was elected to the Senate.

A Dog's Confidence.

Robert Hay, Prefabry of Littlefield, Vicar of Belper, Derbyshire, sends the following description of the conduct of a bull-terrier at Clay Cross to the Animal World: "She was rejoicing over a litter of pups, attending to them with a motherly care, caressing them, and showing for them much anxiety. The owner of this interesting family, came accompanied by a few friends to look at them. The fierceness of the mother was at once developed, and manifested by impetuous growlings, snarls and barking. She would evidently die in defense of her offspring. But the master said, 'I can take every one of those pups away from the mother, and she will not hurt me.' He drew near and approached his hand toward one of the pups. The mother flew at it and seized it in her mouth. He did not attempt to withdraw it until she released it. He proceeded to lay hold of one of the pups. She seized his hand again and held it fast, but without biting it. By degrees he withdrew one of the little creatures. The same process was repeated until every pup was removed and the mother was bereft of all her offspring. She was the picture of misery. She looked up piteously in her master's face and howled with an exceeding bitter cry. The appeal could not be resisted. He replaced the little ones in their nest, and rejoiced to witness the caresses and gratification of the mother. But his surprise and that of his friends was great when he saw her take them up one by one in her mouth and bring and lay them down at his feet. He waited to see what she meant, and was soon convinced that she wished to express her entire confidence in her master. She laid her dear ones at his feet, one by one with the assurance that he would take care of them with affection equal to, if not greater, than her own. She then returned to her nest, now empty, lifted up her head into the air and gave vent to several piteous cries until her little ones were once more restored to her. It is impossible to misunderstand her impulse. She had at first misjudged her master, but now she trusted him. She brought them to her own accord and placed them at his disposal, with full confidence in his love.

WOULD NEVER USE THEM. If persons were aware of the injurious character of most Baking Powders now for sale in the market, they would never use them. A baking powder to be good and wholesome cannot be made by ignorant persons, who know no more about the chemical combinations necessary for such results than a school boy. The only good Baking Powder prepared by a physician, is Dr. Price's Cream. And for his True Flavoring Extracts, we have only to say that they are the finest, purest, and best to be found in this or any other country.
